Whitehall, April 11.

The following unanimous and humble Addreſs of the Guild or Brotherhood of Maſters and Pilots Seamen, of the Trinity Houſe of Kingſton upon Hull, has been preſented to the King by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and one of the ſaid Guild or Brotherhood: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The unanimous and humble Addreſs of the the Guild or Brotherhood of Maſters and Pilots Seamen, of the Trinity-Houſe of Kingſton upon Hull.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Guild or Brotherhood of Maſters and Pilots Seamen, of the Trinity-Houſe of Kingſton upon Hull, with Hearts impreſſed with the moſt unfeigned Gratitude to Divine Providence, and ſincere Loyalty and Affection to your Majeſty, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Recovery from the Viſitation with which it hath lately pleaſed Almighty God to afflict your Sacred Perſon.

We do, with all reſpectful Duty and Humility, aſſure your Majeſty, that we moſt ſincerely participate in this Inſtance of Divine Mercy in Favor of your Majeſty, whoſe Sovereign Virtues this Corporation has long experienced.

That it may pleaſe the Great Diſpoſer of human Events to eſtabliſh and continue to your Majeſty the ineſtimable Bleſſing of Health, and that your Majeſty may long, very long, reign over a happy and grateful People, is our ſincere and fervent Prayer.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Guild, the 20th Day of March, 1789.

John Huntington, Warden.

The following Addreſs of the Nobility, Ladies and Gentlewomen of the County and Town of Banff, having been tranſmitted to her Grace the Dutcheſs of Gordon, has been preſented to the Queen; Which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Nobility, Ladies and Gentlewomen of the County and Town of Banff, dutiful, loyal and affectionate Subjects to our moſt Gracious Sovereign, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majeſty with our warmeſt Expreſſions of Joy for the happy Recovery of the beſt of Kings; an Event, under God, the greateſt Bleſſing to His attached and faithful People.

We congratulate your Majeſty on this joyful Occaſion, and pray to God that He may long preſerve His Majeſty's Life, and the Life of His Royal Conſort, whom we look up to as the Patroneſs of Piety, Virtue and exemplary Religious Duties.

We have long known, and ſhall always admire your amiable Character, and your eminent Wiſdom, as we wiſh to imitate your wiſe and unrivalled Conduct.

We pray to God that Happineſs may be continued to your Majeſty and the Royal Family; and that thoſe Virtues, which we revere with the utmoſt Gratitude, may be remembered and imitated to the lateſt Age.

This humble Addreſs, unanimouſly reſolved on at a numerous and reſpectable Aſſembly met in Banff, the 13th Day of March, 1789, is appointed to be ſent to the Dutcheſs of Gordon, that her Grace may have the Honor of ſigning it in our Names, and preſenting it to Her Majeſty.

J. Gordon.

The following Addreſſes having been delivered or tranſmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majeſty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have been by him preſented to the King: Which Addreſſes His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of Saint Peter in York.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and affectionate Subjects, the Archbiſhop and Dean and Chapter of your Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of Saint Peter in York, feel ourſelves impelled by every Sentiment of Zeal and Duty, to join our Voice in the Acclamation of general Joy upon your Majeſty's happy Reſtoration to Health. We have before uttered it in fervent Thankſgivings to the Throne of Grace, and are now performing our Duty as Citizens, by making a more public Expreſſion of thoſe grateful Feelings by which we acknowledge the Divine Protection.

The Remembrance of former Times preſents to us many Occaſions on which we cannot help believing, that this Country owed its Deliverance to an interfering Providence, but we cannot recollect any Situation in which theſe Nations were reſcued from a deeper Diſtreſs, or from more accumulated Terrors.

May the ſame Divine Goodneſs continue to proteſt your Majeſty as the beſt Guardian of our National Welfare, and may you continue to exerciſe the genuine Effuſions of Gratitude and Affection from an honeſt and manly People, who have the Senſe to know, and the Virtue to proclaim the ineſtimable Benefits which they have ſo long enjoyed under your Majeſty's juſt and gracious Government.

In Teſtimony whereof, we, the Archbiſhop aforeſaid, have hereunto ſet our Hand, and cauſed to be affixed our Seal, and we, the Dean and Chapter aforeſaid, have cauſed our Common Seal to be put, the 30th Day of March, in the Twenty-ninth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

[Delivered by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of York.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Archdeacon and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Llandaff.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Biſhop, Archdeacon and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Llandaff, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, humbly, and with hearty Thankſgivings to Almighty God, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Recovery, which He in His Mercy hath vouchſafed to you, from a long and ſingularly afflicting Indiſpoſition.

We are perſuaded, that no Congratulations, on any Occaſion, were ever offered to any of your Majeſty's Predeceſſors with more cordial Sincerity, and more perfect Unanimity, than thoſe will be which a free, a loyal and an affectionate People will preſent to your Majeſty on this Event: It is an Event highly intereſting to every Branch of your Majeſty's Family, and to every Friend of the Houſe of Brunſwick.

The Happineſs of Men, who have the Misfortune to live under deſpotic Governments, depends more on the good Diſpoſition of their Ruler, than than on the Nature of their Civil Conſtitution: Whilſt that of Men, who live under free Governments, is more dependent on the Principles their of Conſtitution, than on the Virtues of their Prince. How happy, then, may our Situation juſtly be eſteemed! we certainly live under the beſt Form of Civil Government that was ever eſtabliſhed in the World; and we have the Comfort of knowing that it is adminiſtered by a King, whoſe Virtues, public and private, would render even Deſpotiſm itſelf not deſtructive of the Happineſs of Human Kind.

May God, in His good Providence, long continue to us the Bleſſing of your Majeſty's Life and Health, and preſerve to our lateſt Poſterity the Bleſſing of the Britiſh Conſtitution.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop Biſhop of Llandaff]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

S I R,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Biſhop and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Dioceſe of Worceſter, humbly beg Leave to teſtify the Part we take in the general Joy on the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health.

Next to your Majeſty's moſt amiable and ever faithful Conſort, and the ſeveral Branches of the Royal Family, it is hard, Sir, to ſay, which of your Majeſty's other Subjects have Reaſon to exult moſt on this great Event.

But, as our Miniſtry is ordained for the Service of All, we feel the extenſive Influence it derives from your Majeſty's ſpecial Protection of us, and known Zeal for the Intereſts of our Holy Religion. We cannot, therefore, but expreſs the peculiar Satisfaction we take in finding ourſelves again under the Care of your Majeſty's wiſe and ſalutary Government. And, as the all gracious Father of the univerſe mixes His ſevereſt Diſpenſations with Mercy, we obſerve further, that the late Interruption of our Happineſs has ſerved to give a freſh Value to the Bleſſings ſo long enjoyed under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; and, if poſſible, to augment the Truſt and Confidence which your Majeſty had ever, with ſo much Reaſon, repoſed in the ardent Loyalty and Affection of your People.

We omit other Conſiderations; but we cannot forget the ſignal Marks of Grace and Bounty conferred upon us in the Courſe of the laſt Summer, when your Majeſty was pleaſed to viſit that Part of your Kingdom, in which we are placed: And we ſhall be allowed to profeſs, that this late Experience of your Majeſty's Goodneſs, enlivens the Senſe, we have in common with all our Fellow Subjects, of the great Mercy vouchſafed to us in your Majeſty's perfect Recovery.

[Delivered by the Right Rev. the Lord Biſhop.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Chapter of the Collegiate Church of St. Peter in the City of Weſtminſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Dean and Chapter of your Collegiate Church of Weſtminſter, actuated by the pureſt Motives of Loyalty and Gratitude, moſt humbly beg Leave to repreſent to your Majeſty the ſincere Part we take in that univerſal Joy and Satisfaction which has been moſt ſignally diſplayed by all Ranks and Orders of your Snbjects on your Majeſty's Recovery from a ſevere Viſitation of the Almighty, who, in His good Time has been pleaſed to manifeſt His Mercy, and favourably to hear the Prayers and Supplications of a much afflicted People.

We ourſelves receive this national Bleſſing with a grateful Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs; and it will ever be our Duty to impreſs upon the Minds of others thoſe ſound Principles of Religion and Loyalty which will beſt entitle us to the Favour of Heaven, and a long Enjoyment of your Majeſty's mild and conſtitutional Government.

Given at our Chapter Houſe at Weſtminſter, under our Common Seal, the 2d Day of April, in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

J. Rocheſter, Dean of Weſtminſter.

[Tranſmitted by the Right Reverend the Lord Biſhop of Rocheſter.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lieutenant-Governor, the Council and Keys of the Iſle of Mann.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lieutenant-Governor, Council and Keys of your Iſland of Mann, in Tynwald aſſembled, beg Leave to preſent our ſincere Congratulations on the Recovery of your Majeſty's Health, the Value and Importance of which may be juſtly eſtimated by that univerſal Joy which has ſucceeded the anxious Solicitude lately felt, not only throughout but beyond your Majeſty's Dominions.

Senſible of the Happineſs we have derived from your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, (under the immediate Protection of which it is our higheſt Ambition to remain) we can only expreſs our Gratitude by our pious Wiſhes, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long continued, and that the Bleſſings of it may be tranſmitted through your Illuſtrious Family to our lateſt Poſterity.

By Order of the Houſe of Keys,

John Taubman, Speaker.

Caſtle Ruſhen, March 26, 1789.

[Tranſmitted by the Lieutenant-Governor.]

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and faithful Subjects, the Treaſurer and Maſters of the Bench of the antient Society of the Middle Temple, beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our warmeſt Congratulations upon your Recovery from your late Indiſpoſition, and to expreſs our moſt ardent Wiſhes that your Majeſty may long continue to enjoy the Bleſſing of perfect Health, a Bleſſing which cannot more add to your Majeſty's Happineſs, than we are perſuaded, from our Experience of your Government, it will contribute to the Satisfaction of all your Majeſty's Subjects.

As a Society ſet apart for the Study and Practice of the Law, we cannot but be conſcious that nothing ought to be more ardently prayed for by all your Subjects than the Continuance of a Reign in which they have poſſeſſed, without Interruption, the invaluable Benefits which that Law is calculated to ſecure to them, and which it has ever been your Majeſty's moſt anxious Care they ſhould fully enjoy.

Jerome Knapp, Treaſurer.

[Delivered by Jerome Knapp, Eſq; Treaſurer, the Right Hon. the Maſter of the Rolls and His Majeſty's Solicitor General.]

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Treaſurer and Maſters of the Bench of the ancient Society of Gray's Inn, eſtabliſhed for promoting the Study and Practice of the Law, on Behalf of ourſelves and the other Members thereof, beg Leave to unite our ſincere and cordial Congratulations, with thoſe of our Fellow Subjects, on the happy Re-eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health.

Highly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and equitable Government, we are deeply impreſſed with Gratitude to Almighty God, for His having vouchſafed to liſten to the Prayers of your People, in the Reſtoration of your Majeſty's Health.

That Loyalty which, as good Subjects, it is our Duty to profeſs, and as a Law Society to inculcate and promote, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty is accompanied with a moſt warm and reſpectful Attachment to your Majeſty for your many perſonal Virtues, convinced that nothing can be more favourable to the Cauſe of Religion and Morality, than ſo bright an Example in ſo elevated a Situation.

May your Majeſty long continue to reign over a free and loyal People, the Protector of their Religion, Laws, and Liberties.

Sam. Wegg, V. T.

Gray's Inn, April 7, 1789.

[Delivered by the Vice-Treaſurer.]

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Devon.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Devon, aſſembled at the Caſtle of Exeter, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty's Throne with our humble Congratulations, and to teſtify to your Majeſty and to the World, the unfeigned Joy of our Hearts on the moſt auſpicious Event of your Majeſty's Return to the Exerciſe of your Royal Authority.

The Virtues of great Princes have ever commanded the Reverence of this Nation; and we cannot but account it a ſingular Mark of the Divine Favour to your Majeſty, that in conſequence of your late Indiſpoſition you are enabled to anticipate, by the general paſt Affliction and preſent Happineſs of your People, the Sentiments of Poſterity upon your Reign, which will ever be recorded as the Æra moſt glorious for the Crown, and the greateſt Felicity to the Subject.

With the generous Pride of Britons we behold the Nations of Europe taking Part with us lately in our Diſtreſs, and now in our Exultation; and we confide in the ſame Divine Goodneſs, which hath reſtored your Majeſty to our Prayers, that it hath preſerved you for Purpoſes the moſt beneficial to us, to our Poſterity, and to Mankind, long to bleſs your own People, and your own Royal Houſe, by the continued Exerciſe of every regal and paternal Care, and to be an illuſtrious Example to all the Princes of the Earth, that the Loyalty of Subjects will ever be ſecured, when Wiſdom, Juſtice and Piety preſide over the Meaſures of Government.

We feel ourſelves peculiarly called upon to manifeſt our Veneration for thoſe Virtues which diſtinguiſh your Majeſty, at a Time when our Hearts are filled with Gratitude to Divine Providence for relieving us from the Anxiety and Affliction which we ſuffered during the Continuance of your Majeſty's Indiſpoſition, and for reviving the Vigour and Energy of the Conſtitution, by the Reſtoration of your Majeſty to the perſonal Exerciſe of your Royal Authority.

We acknowledge, with all poſſible Thankfulneſs, the Goodneſs of Almighty God, in attending to the Prayers of a loyal and afflicted People; and we moſt earneſtly hope, that your Majeſty may be bleſſed with an uninterrupted Enjoyment of Health; and that the Happineſs and Proſperity of the Empire may be maintained and advanced by a long Continuance of your Majeſty's Reign.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Common Council, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Canterbury.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Common-Council, Citizens, and Inhabitants of your antient and loyal City of Canterbury, are happy to expreſs, in this public Manner, our heartfelt Joy and Satisfaction on the perfect Re eſtabliſhment of your Majeſty's Health; and we reverence with Gratitude that Supreme Being, by whom your Majeſty is reſtored to the executive Government of theſe Realms, and to your Royal Functions.

Moſt truly ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we have enjoyed under your Majeſty's benign and paternal Care, we cannot but be anxiouſly ſolicitous for the Preſervation of your invaluable Life, on which the Happineſs of Individuals, and the Proſperity of the Kingdom, ſo much depend. To rule in the Hearts of a free People is the illuſtrious Diſtinction of your Majeſty's Character, and we truſt it will ever continue the brighteſt Ornament of your Crown.

As faithful Subjects, we conceive it our indiſpenſible Duty to felicitate your Majeſty on the Wiſdom and Firmneſs of your Miniſtry, and on the Meaſures adopted by Parliament in the gloomy Interval of your Majeſty's Illneſs: Their Proceedings have been equally demonſtrative of a ſteady and inviolable Attachment to your ſacred Rights, to the general Welfare and Safety of the Public, and to the true Spirit of our excellent Conſtitution.

Impreſſed with the deepeſt Senſe of the Bleſſings we have ever experienced under the Protection of your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, the late Suſpenſion of your Regal Functions was juſtly deplored by us as a National Calamity. The Event therefore that has now happily reſtored a beloved Sovereign to His People fills our Hearts with the moſt unfeigned Joy, and we conceive ourſelves bound, by every Obligation of Gratitude, for the Favours of Heaven, and of of Duty to your Majeſty, to teſtify the Sentiments we feel on the preſent intereſting Occaſion.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Rotherham, beg Leave to Addreſs your Majeſty with our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your perfect Recovery from your late alarming and ſevere Indiſpoſition.

The Anxiety and Diſtreſs which appeared in every Rank of your Majeſty's Subjects during your Illneſs, is an undeniable Proof of the unfeigned Attachment which they have to your Royal Perſon. The following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Aileſbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſhold, have been by him preſented to the Queen: Which Addreſſes Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To Her Moſt Gracious Majeſty the QUEEN,

The humble Addreſs of the Archbiſhop, and Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitical Church of St. Peter, in York.

MADAM,

WHILE we are expreſſing to His Majeſty the ſincere Part we take in the public Joy upon the Reſtoration of His former Health, we cannot poſſibly overlook the great Source of His uſual Comforts, which on other Occaſions never failed to afford Him Relief, but of which He was lately unhappily bereft.

The

The Meaſure of that Affliction, which we have all ſuffered, appeared to have been full; but we know how ſhort it muſt fall, when compared with thoſe Agonies which your Majeſty has endured.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, not in the Language of Adulation, but in the Sincerity of plain Truth, that in the Midſt of our Sorrows which neceſſarily flowed from the View of public Conſequences, and the unfeigned Affection which we all bear to His Majeſty's Perſon, the Sufferings of His Royal Conſort added a freſh Pang to the Senſe of our Calamity.

We now implore the Giver of all good Things to make perfect your Conſolation, and to ſuſtain you under the Preſſure of Evils whenſoever they ariſe; and we will not believe that amongſt His Majeſty's Subjects there are any Minds ſo obdurate as not to unite cordially in this dutiful Supplication.

In Teſtimony whereof we, the Archbiſhop aforeſaid, have hereunto ſet our Hand, and cauſed to be affixed our Seal, and we, the Dean and Chapter aforeſaid, have cauſed our Common Seal to be put, the 30th Day of March, in the Twenty-ninth Year of His Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord, 1789.

W. Ebor.

[Tranſmitted by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of York.]

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Archdeacon and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Landaff.

Moſt Gracious Queen,

WE, the Biſhop, Archdeacon and Chapter, and Clergy of the Dioceſe of Landaff, entreat your Majeſty graciouſly to accept our Congratulations on the King's Recovery from His late Indiſpoſition. They are tendered to your Majeſty with the utmoſt Truth.

The Comforts of Domeſtic Life are natural and ſincere; all Perſons, in all Ranks, equally feel the Importance of poſſeſſing them, are equally afflicted by their Interruption or Loſs: We firmly believe that every Family in the Kingdom ſympathized with your Majeſty in your late Diſtreſs; and that they all participate in your preſent Felicity.

Senſible of the Influence of Royal Example, we have always thought that your Majeſty was intitled to the Thanks of this Kingdom for the Proofs you have uniformly given, during a long Reſidence amongſt us, of the Sincerity of your Piety, of the Amiableneſs and Purity of your Manners, as a Queen, as a Wife, and as a Mother: But if your Majeſty could have claimed our Regard on no other Account, the Tenderneſs and Concern you have ſhown for a beloved Monarch, during His late unhappy Situation, would have ſecured to you the grateful Attachment of a loyal People.

We obſerved in the Deliberations of Parliament a great Diverſity of Opinion, as to the moſt conſtitutional Mode of protecting the Rights of the Sovereign, during the Continuance of His Indiſpoſition; but we obſerved none whatever as to the Neceſſity of doing it in the moſt effectual Manner. This Circumſtance cannot fail of giving ſolid Satisfaction to your Majeſty; for next to the Conſolation of believing that, in His Recovery, He has been the eſpecial Object of God's Mercy, muſt be that of knowing that, during His Illneſs, He was the peculiar Object of His People's Love; that He reigns over a free, a great and an enlightened Nation, not more by the Laws of the Land than by the Wiſhes of all His Subjects.

To the QUEEN.

MADAM,

WE, the Biſhop and Clergy of the Cathedral Church and Dioceſe of Worceſter, humbly hope your Majeſty will be pleaſed to accept our ſincereſt Congratulations on His Majeſty's happy Recovery from His late Illneſs.

We ſympathiſe, Madam, with your Majeſty in thoſe Senſations of Joy and Exultation which fill your Royal Breaſt on this Occaſion; and we want Words to expreſs our Thankfulneſs to Almighty God, for His merciful Acceptance of thoſe Prayers, which, in a Seaſon of peculiar Anxiety and Diſtreſs, were ſo earneſtly offered up to the Throne of Grace by a dutiful and affectionate People.

May it pleaſe God very long to preſerve to us the invaluable Bleſſing of our moſt gracious and beloved Sovereign's Life and Health; and to reward your Majeſty with thoſe Conſolations which, in the order of a wiſe and good Providence, ſpring out of a Life diſtinguiſhed as your Majeſty's is by the moſt exemplary Virtues.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE, the High Sheriff and Grand Jury of the County of Somerſet, aſſembled at the Aſſizes at Taunton, confidently, though humbly, approach your Majeſty to congratulate you on the Recovery of your Royal Conſort.

The glorious Proof of Firmneſs, Moderation and conjugal Affection which your Majeſty has ſhewn on the late intereſting Occaſion, cannot fail of exciting the Admiration of the preſent age, and the Reverence of the future.

Your Majeſty, by contributing every tender Care and Attention to that Health ſo important to all, has clearly evinced yourſelf worthy of the greateſt Confidence a loyal and affectionate People could repoſe. May your Reward both here and hereafter be complete; may every Circumſtance of domeſtic Happineſs attend you uninterruptedly; and may you long continue the bright Example of thoſe benevolent, conjugal and maternal Virtues, which render you the Pride and Ornament of theſe Kingdoms.

The many conſpicuous and amiable Virtues, by which your Majeſty has ever engaged the Hearts of the Britiſh Nation, and which compelled us lately to participate in the Diſtreſs of your Royal Mind, excite us now to take an affectionate and ardent Intereſt in the Reſtoration of your Peace.

Permit us, Madam, to add our unfeigned Prayer, that your Majeſties may long be bleſt in the Society of each other, and in the Enjoyment of every Felicity, exemplifying to your Royal Progeny, and to your People, ſuch an illuſtrious Union of Virtue and Happineſs on the Throne, as being the Delight and Glory of the preſent Age, may extend its moſt auſpicious Influence to ſucceeding Generations.

Impreſſed with truly ſympathetic Affection, and highly revering your Majeſty's eminent Virtues, we are unable to expreſs the Anxiety which we felt for your Majeſty's melancholy Situation, or our Admiration of your Majeſty's Firmneſs of Mind in the Hour of Affliction. Still leſs have we Power to deſcribe the Meaſure of our Joy, and how unfeignedly we participate in the general Felicity on the auſpicious Event which confirms to us the Bleſſings of a juſt and benevolent Government, and which muſt afford the moſt heartfelt Conſolation to the beſt of Queens.

The humble Addreſs of the People called Quakers, of the City of Dublin, on Behalf of themſelves and the reſt of their Brethren in the Nation of Ireland.

May it pleaſe the King,

WE, Thy dutiful and loyal Subjects, having, during Thy late Indiſpoſition, been deeply affected with Sorrow, flowing from Minds full of ſincere Affection to Thee, and Sympathy with Thy Royal Conſort, our much honoured Queen, and having been engaged in ſecret Petition to the Almighty for Thy Recovery, beg Leave, beloved Sovereign, with great Sincerity of Heart, thus to mingle with our Fellow Subjects in reſpectful Congratulations on that happy Event; rejoicing with humble Thankfulneſs to the Author of all Good, that He hath been graciouſly pleaſed to enable Thee to reſume Thy Royal Authority, and again to attend to the weighty and important Buſineſs of Thy Kingdoms; which mayſt Thou long continue to exerciſe, in that Wiſdom which comes from above, which is pure, peaceable gentle, and eaſy to be entreated, full of Mercy and good Fruits; whereby the great Cauſe of Truth and Righteouſneſs may be happily promoted, and the Suppreſſion of Vice and Immorality attended to, through the different Departments of Thy Government.

We ſhould do Injuſtice to our own Feelings, and thoſe of our Brethren in the different Parts of this Nation, with whoſe Unity and Approbation we have preſumed thus to approach Thee, ſhould we omit on this joyful Occaſion to acknowledge, with the deepeſt Senſations of Gratitude, the many Obligations we, as a Religious Society, are under to Thee and Thy Illuſtrious Anceſtors, for the many Privileges, both Civil and Religious, we have been favoured to enjoy; and being firmly attached to Thy Royal Perſon, Family and Government, we hope, by our Perſeverance in a dutiful and peaceable Demeanour, to enſure Continuance of Thy Favour and Protection.

That Thy Councils may be directed by Him by whom Kings reign and Princes decree Juſtice, and Thy Mediation for promoting Peace and Harmony in the Earth be happily bleſſed with Succeſs; that Thy Reign may be long and proſperous, and Thy End crowned with that Peace which the World can neither give nor take away; and that there may never be wanting a Succeſſor in Thy Royal Lineage, poſſeſſed of Thy Virtues, Abilities and Moderation, to ſit upon the Throne of the Britiſh Realms, is the ſincere Deſire and Prayer of our Hearts.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants at large of the County of Cavan.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants at large of the County of Cavan, beg Leave to pour out to your Majeſty our heartfelt Joy upon your Majeſty's moſt ardently implored Recovery, and our Acknowlegements of the Divine Favor, which, in enabling your Majeſty to reſume the perſonal Exerciſe of the Royal Authority, has reſtored Happineſs to your Subjects and Energy to your united Empire.

Permit us, Sire, to aſſure your Majeſty, that our Senſe of the innumerable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign ſo powerfully exceeds all Force of Expreſſion, that it can only be equalled by our unalterable Reſpect and Attachment to your Majeſty, your Family, and Government, ment, and by our inceſſant Gratitude and Prayers to the Almighty, that our beloved Monarch may long continue to enjoy uninterrupted Health, to reign all powerful in the Hearts of His People.

John Stanford, Sheriff.

Cavan Lent Aſſizes, 1789.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cork, convened by public Notice at the King's Old Caſtle, Cork, the 25th Day of March, 1789.

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cork, beg Leave to offer our moſt warm and affectionate Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Recovery from an Indiſpoſition, deeply lamented by all your Majeſty's Subjects throughout your extenſive Dominions, and by none more ſincerely than by thoſe whom Duty and Affection have now aſſembled.

Senſible of the numerous Bleſſings this Nation has derived from the Auguſt Houſe of Brunſwick, we profeſs the moſt zealous Attachment to your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Family, and we ſeize, with the warmeſt Satisfaction, this joyful Occaſion of declaring our Gratitude to your Majeſty, under whoſe auſpicious Reign all thoſe Bleſſings have been peculiarly felt, and invariably enjoyed.

Fully conſcious how much we owe to your Majeſty's paternal Care, we cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Thankfulneſs to the Omnipotent Being, who has been graciouſly pleaſed to receive our Prayers, and reſtore a beloved Monarch to His faithful and affectionate Subjects.

We conclude this very inadequate Expreſſion of our Joy, with beſeeching the ſame Almighty Power to grant, that your Majeſty may long continue bleſſed with uninterrupted Health and Proſperity, governing an united and happy People.

Signed by Order of the Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Cork, in County Court-Houſe convened, George Dunſcombe, Sheriff.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, your dutiful and ever loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons, and Citizens of the City of Dublin, humbly offer our Congratulations on your Majeſty's Recovery from your late ſevere Indiſpoſition, and beg Leave to expreſs how deeply ſenſible we are of the ineſtimable Value of your Majeſty's Life and Health to your faithful People.

The Earneſtneſs and Fervor with which we looked for the happy Times that have now returned, are only to be equalled by the Sincerity with which we pray Almighty God, that your Majeſty may long flouriſh a revered, beloved, Patriot King.

The Worth of a Sovereign ſo mild, a Parent ſo provident, and a Friend ſo true, was never before ſo fully underſtood, until He was loſt for ever; but it is the peculiar Bleſſing of your faithful Subjects, that they are awakened to a due Senſe of your Majeſty's great and endearing Qualities, ere it is too late, and whilſt our Country continues to proſper under their benign Influence.

The Afflictions of your Loyal Citizens of Dublin grew the more poignant during your Majeſty's late Illneſs, as we reflected, that nothing but a Care for the Public Weal, too active and inceſſant, had borne down your Strength, and cauſed you to faint in the Service of your People.

Return then, Sire, with renovated Vigour of Mind and Body, to attain the glorious Ends to which your auſpicious Reign has been directed; live long the Supporter of the Law, the approved Patron and Defender of Civil and Religious Liberty.

Never before did your People experience Anguiſh occaſioned by your Majeſty: May this we have taſted be accounted our Share of the bitter Cup; and let the Tranſit of our good and gracious King from His Throne of Ireland to a Throne eternal, in the Ripeneſs of Time, and in the Fullneſs of His Fame, be reſerved for the Portion of a future Generation.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid City to be hereunto affixed, this 23d Day of March, 1789.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Marquis of Buckingham, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Earl of Aileſbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majeſty's Houſehold, has by him been preſented to Her Majeſty: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

While we deplored the Indiſpoſition of our Gracious Sovereign as a public Calamity, we moſt ſincerely ſympathized with the Affliction of His Family, and eſpecially of your Majeſty, whoſe amiable Character has endeared you to the Nation, and whoſe Conduct has uniformly exhibited on the Throne an Illuſtrious Pattern of the Virtues of domeſtic Life.

We beſeech your Majeſty to be perſuaded of the Warmth with which we participate in your Happineſs on the joyful Event of the Recovery of the Father of His People. And we truſt that this ſincere Profeſſion of Reſpect to your Majeſty will be regarded by the King as a new Teſtimony of our unſhaken Loyalty and Attachment to His Perſon, Family and Government.

Signed at the Requeſt of and in the Name of the Burgeſſes and Principal Inhabitants of Belfaſt, aſſembled at the Town Houſe; in Teſtimony whereof I have cauſed the Common Seal of the Corporation to be hereunto affixed, this 21ſt Day of March, 1789.
